

AWARD DESCRIPTIONS AND QUESTIONS

Investment Professional of the Year

Rising Star (between two and five years experience)

This award honours an outstanding female professional who is in the early stages of her career working in the investment and funds management sector. This individual will be a valued member of a team, providing consistent and strong support to any and all elements of fund operations. This award honours an individual who has a strong sense of understanding and desire to make a difference in their day-to-day working life, but also for their future in the industry.

This award is open to women with job titles like (but not limited to) investment officers, portfolio managers, portfolio analysts, investment analysts, fund managers, investment specialists, investment researchers, investment associates, sustainable investing specialists and more. To be eligible for this award, you must have between two and five years of experience in the investment management space.

Questions - up to 300 words each

Please answer these questions on behalf of the nominee (yourself or another individual).

1. What accomplishments is the nominee most proud of in their role in the last 12 months that have helped to elevate the success of themselves or their business?
2. What personal principles does the nominee strongly value and how has it strengthened their work ethic and motivated them to perform in their current role?
3. Describe the importance of advocating for issues plaguing the industry or broader community to the nominee, ie. female representation and experiences, social and environmental issues etc. How do they see themselves contributing to delivering improved and stronger outcomes, now or in the future?

Contact Us

If you have any issues or questions with submitting a nomination, please contact us.

Yasmine Raso
Senior Journalist
M: +61 433 899 213
E: yasmineraso@financialnewswire.com.au