

AWARD DESCRIPTIONS AND QUESTIONS

Pro Bono of the Year

This award acknowledges the exceptional work of a female professional from across the wealth management and financial services industry who has admirably dedicated significant time and effort to a form of pro bono work. This individual will have spearheaded or have played an integral part in any initiative that has successfully delivered a positive contribution or social benefit to their workplace, industry or community in the last 12 months. The recipient of this award is known for her hardworking spirit and giving nature, and is committed to helping those who need it and advocating strongly for necessary change. The initiative may form part of the working role or may have been completed externally in one's personal time.
